the strike situation, its spread throughout the country and the confusion to shipping that has resulted was forcibly shown by a glance at the embargo files in the traffic offices, one of which Friday contained 393 separate embargo orders. Order of Rallway Conductors had agreed with Southern Pacific officials to respond to future calls for train service regardless of strike conditions. The agreement was said to affect all Southern Pacific lines from Portland, Orc., to El Paso, Tex., and Ogden, Utah.
Passenger service on the Pacific const was reported practically normal. Southern Pacific officials said freight traffic was nearly normal on some of its California lines and was being restored on others.

Strikers were reported returning to work at St. Louis and at Kansas City brotherhood chairmen issued an ultimatum to strikers to report to work on or before tomorrow under penalty of losing their seniority rights.

Although Memphis railway officials were decidedly optimistic Friday over the strike situation, its spread throughout the country and the confusion to shipping that has resulted was forcibly shown by a glance at the embargo files in the traffic offices, one of which Friday contained 853 separate embargo orders. As one railway official expressed the situation: "While there have been many embargoes and hold-back orders on ehipments to the North and East, these orders are only temporary and are not interfering with business at Memphis to the extent that might be at first thought. It is no new thing for cotton to be embargoed to many interior Eastern mill points, and so far as the embargoed points are concerned it is safe to say Memphis business is not

WASHINGTON. April 16. (Spi)—It was learned today that Senator Mc-Kellar will unquestionably seek election as one of the delegates at large to the national convention at San Francisco. It is customary in Tennessee to select a United States senator where he expresses a desire to go. Senator Mc-Kellar favors the indorsement of the nation administration of Woodrow Wilson in no uncertain terms, including an absolute indorsement of the treaty of neace and league of nations.

He has tayored and stood by in every essential detail the administration of President Wilson during his more than reven years of Service as president, He does not at this time favor any particular endidate and expresses the hope that the delegation will be made up of Democratic who will advise and outer together and who will aid in securing as the Democratic candidate at San Francisco a man who will get the most votes and make the best president; he believes that the candidates for delagates in the various districts and in the state at large should be selected openly and should tell the people beforehand just where they stand on the leading public questions.

No senator has been a stauncher or
